L.N.189 of 2017.

4. A certificate issued by the Malta Residence and Visa Agency in accordance with these regulations shall entitle the beneficiary of such a certificate and his registered dependants to reside, settle or stay indefinitely in Malta, provided that:

- (a) the certificate shall be monitored annually for the first five years from its issue, and every five years thereafter, and it shall be considered to have been ipso iure withdrawn as soon as the beneficiary thereof infringes any of the provisions of these regulations; and
- (b) the said certificate shall not by itself entitle the holder thereof to any other rights mentioned in the Immigration Regulations.

S.L. 217.04.

Application.
Substituted by:
L.N.189 of 2017.

5. (1) An individual, as duly represented by a registered approved agent and, or registered accredited person may apply to Malta Residence and Visa Agency for the issuance of a certificate under these regulations, in such form as Malta Residence and Visa Agency may require and by paying a non-refundable administrative fee of five thousand five hundred euro (€5,500).

(2) Where it is established that the individual mentioned in sub-regulation (1) qualifies as a beneficiary, the Malta Residence and Visa Agency shall determine in writing that such individual is to be issued a certificate under these regulations.

(3) Upon such determination in writing in terms of sub-regulation (2) and prior to the issuance of the certificate, the main applicant, as duly represented by a registered approved agent and, or registered accredited person, shall pay the contribution less the non-refundable administrative fee already paid upon presentation of the application, and present the necessary title to a qualifying property, and a certificate to a qualifying investment, and any other document as may be required from time to time by notice issued by Malta Residence and Visa Agency:

Provided that no certificate shall be issued to the main applicant or any of his dependants even in the case that Malta Residence and Visa Agency has issued its approval in principle in terms of these regulations, unless the conditions above referred to are satisfied to the full satisfaction of Malta Residence and Visa Agency.

(4) Following the death of a beneficiary, in exceptional circumstances, Malta Residence and Visa Agency shall be empowered to determine that the certificate issued in terms of sub-regulation (3) shall be issued to a dependant of that deceased beneficiary. Such certificate shall be issued once the said dependant provides proof to Malta Residence and Visa Agency that all the requirements of these regulations are satisfied in such manner as Malta Residence and Visa Agency may determine.

(5) The beneficiary under these regulations, as duly represented by a registered approved agent and, or registered accredited person may apply to Malta Residence and Visa Agency for the issuance of a certificate under these regulations, in such form as Malta Residence and Visa Agency may require, for any dependant as referred to in the definition in paragraph (c) regulation (2) who is born or adopted after the appointed day, subject to a successful due diligence check.

(6) The beneficiary under these regulations, as duly represented by a registered approved agent or registered accredited person may apply to Malta Residence and Visa Agency to include on the Main Beneficiary certificate issued under these regulations, and against a non-refundable supplementary administration fee of five thousand euro (€5,000), the spouse of the beneficiary's or his spouse's approved child being a child who would have been previously accepted as a dependant in the residence certificate, subject to a successful due diligence check.

(7) The beneficiary under these regulations, as duly represented by a registered approved agent and, or registered accredited person may apply to Malta Residence and Visa Agency to include on the Main Beneficiary certificate issued under these regulations, and against a non-refundable supplementary administration fee of five thousand euro (€5,000), any dependant who, after the appointed day, is born to, or adopted by an approved child as defined in the precedent sub-regulation (6) or his spouse, where such spouse is herself already a beneficiary under these regulations according to sub-regulation (6), subject to a successful due diligence check:

Provided that an approved dependant, being a child of the main applicant or spouse, who gets married, his or her direct dependants will not derive residency rights under these regulations automatically. In this respect Malta Residence and Visa Agency will consider residency under these regulations, against a non-refundable supplementary administration fee of five thousand euro (€5,000) per dependant and subject to a successful due diligence check.

(8) The beneficiary under these regulations, as duly represented by a registered approved agent and, or registered accredited person may apply to Malta Residence and Visa Agency to include on the Main Beneficiary certificate issued under these regulations, and against a non-refundable supplementary administration fee of five thousand euro (€5,000), the spouse or minor/child of a dependant as defined in regulation 2 of the principal regulations and subject to a successful due diligence check.

Qualifications and
requirements.
Amended by:
L.N.189 of 2017.

6. (1) The qualifications and general requirements for a person to be issued a certificate under these regulations shall be that such person:

- (a) is at least eighteen years of age;
- (b) meets the application requirements;
- (c) commits himself to provide proof of title to a qualifying property in Malta in accordance with these regulations;
- (d) commits himself to invest in a qualifying investment;
- (e) commits himself to pay in full the contribution in terms of these regulations:

Provided that beneficiaries of the Global Residence Programme shall be allowed to apply for the issuance of a certificate in terms of these regulations subject to satisfying all the additional eligibility requirements of these regulations.

(2) Applications shall be accompanied by the prescribed non-refundable administrative fee and by the originals or certified copies of the following:

- (a) a police certificate in relation to the main applicant and any dependant who is older than fourteen years of age at the time of application, issued by the competent authorities in the country of origin and in the country or countries of residence where such a person would have resided for a period of more than six months during the last ten years, or in exceptional cases, where it is proved to the satisfaction of Malta Residence and Visa Agency that such a certificate is not obtainable, a sworn affidavit made by the main applicant, either on his own behalf or on behalf of each of his minor dependants who are over fourteen years of age, and any adult dependant, on his own behalf, declaring a clean criminal record; in certain circumstances Malta Residence and Visa Agency may accept that such certificates are submitted at a later date but in any case before the application is approved in principle;

- (b) evidence, through a ‘know your customer’ basis, due diligence processes, carried out by the registered approved agent and, or registered accredited person that there is no a priori evidence that the main applicant and his dependants are not fit and proper persons;
- (c) an undertaking to purchase or lease an immovable property in Malta which property qualifies as a qualifying property in accordance with these regulations;
- (d) an undertaking, if necessary, to make such other investments in Malta in accordance with these regulations;
- (e) an undertaking to remit the total of the required contribution, less the non-refundable administrative fee already made at the time of submission of the application;
- (f) a certificate as requested from a reputable health system to the satisfaction of Malta Residence and Visa Agency, that the main applicant and his dependants are not suffering from any contagious disease and that they are otherwise in good health and will not be, in terms of the medical review carried out by Malta Residence and Visa Agency, of an unreasonable burden on the national health system;
- (g) any other document as may be required from time to time by notice issued by Malta Residence and Visa Agency.

(3) Application forms and other accompanying documents shall be completed in English or, if the original language of the document is not English, the document shall be accompanied by an authenticated translation.

(4) The applicant shall provide an affidavit of the support for each dependant who is over eighteen years old.

(5) The following conditions apply to minor dependants:

- (a) the forms shall be signed by both parents on behalf of the dependant; and
- (b) in the case where one parent has sole custody of a dependant, or another person has legal guardianship of a dependant, the appropriate legal documentation shall be provided to demonstrate the sole custody or guardianship was awarded by a court of law or other relevant authority.

(6) If an applicant makes a false statement or omits information requested, the application may be declined solely on that basis.

Eligibility.
Substituted by:
L.N.189 of 2017.

7. In addition to the qualifications and general requirements as set out in regulation 6, the minimum eligibility criteria for an application under these regulations, for the main applicant and any of his dependants, shall be as follows:

- (a) a proper background verification of the main applicant and his dependants over the age of fourteen years, as the case may be;
- (b) a police certificate in relation to the main applicant and any dependant who is older than fourteen years of age at the time of application, issued by the competent authorities in the country of origin and in the country or countries of residence where such a person would have resided for a period of more than six months during the last ten years, or in exceptional cases, where it is proved to the satisfaction of Malta Residence and Visa Agency that such a certificate is not obtainable, a sworn affidavit made by the main applicant, either on his own behalf or on behalf of each of his minor dependants who are over the age of 14, and any adult dependant, on his own behalf, declaring a clean criminal record; in certain circumstances Malta Residence and Visa Agency may accept that such certificates are submitted at a later date but in any case before the application is approved in principle;
- (c) the main applicant and, or any of his dependants are not individuals indicted before an International Criminal Court or who appeared at any time before an International Criminal Court, whether such persons have been found guilty or otherwise by such Court;
- (d) the main applicant and, or any of his dependants, are not persons listed with the International Criminal Police Organization (INTERPOL) at the time of application;
- (e) the main applicant and, or any of his dependants is not, or may not be a potential threat to national security, public policy or public health;
- (f) the main applicant and, or any of his dependants shall not be an individual who, at any time, had pending charges related to crimes of terrorism, money laundering, funding of terrorism, crimes against humanity, war crimes, or crimes that infringe upon such Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms as established by the European Convention on Human Rights, or who has been found guilty of any such crimes;
- (g) the main applicant and, or any of his dependants is not an individual who has been found guilty or has charges brought against him regarding any of the criminal offences that disturb the good order of the family, which criminal offences include, without limitation, the following:

- (i) paedophilia,
- (ii) defilement of minors,
- (iii) rape,
- (iv) violent indecent assault,
- (v) inducing persons under age to prostitution, and
- (vi) abduction;
- (h) the main applicant and, or any of his dependants is not be an individual who at any time was found guilty, or, at the time of the application, is being interrogated and suspected, or has criminal charges brought against him for any criminal offence, other than an involuntary offence, punishable with more than two years' imprisonment. The main applicant shall attach with his application a sworn declaration before a Commissioner for Oaths, lawyer or notary public that the said information that he has provided is true and correct;
- (i) where a document is required to be produced under these regulations in support of an application:
  - (i) such document must be an original document or if not an original, it must be a certified copy; and
  - (ii) the person certifying the document shall provide the full name, capacity in which the person is acting, residential or business address, telephone number and email address;
- (j) the application is not deemed to be against public interest.

8. (1) For the purposes of these regulations, and without prejudice to any rights and duties emanating from the Immigration Regulations and unless any individual is already in possession of a residence document or a residence permit issued under the Immigration Regulations, an individual shall be deemed to be a beneficiary of a certificate issued under these regulations only if he, as from the appointed day and throughout the entire duration and persistence of the certificate, proves to the satisfaction of Malta Residence and Visa Agency that:

- (a) he is a third country national and is not a Maltese, EEA or Swiss national;

Cessation of certificate.
Amended by:
L.N.189 of 2017.

9. (1) A beneficiary shall, with effect from the date of issuing of certificate, cease to benefit from a certificate issued under these regulations:

- (a) if the individual becomes a Maltese, EEA or Swiss national;
- (b) if, at any time, after the appointed day, such individual does not satisfy the conditions set out in regulation 8;
- (c) if, at any time after the appointed day, such individual no longer remains eligible in terms of regulation 7;
- (d) if the individual's stay is not in the public interest;

- (e) if, at any time, after the appointed day, such individual does not fulfil any commitment contemplated in these regulations, including in particular a commitment referred to in regulation 6.
- (2) (a) An individual who ceases to benefit from a certificate issued in terms of these regulations for any of the reasons specified in sub-regulation (1) shall notify Malta Residence and Visa Agency of such event by not later than four weeks from the date when he becomes aware of such event. This notification shall be made on such form as may be required by Malta Residence and Visa Agency.
- (b) Where such notification is not made within the time specified, the person responsible for such event shall be charged an administrative penalty of fifteen thousand euro (€15,000).
- (3) An individual shall, with immediate effect, cease to benefit from a certificate issued in terms of these regulations if he notifies Malta Residence and Visa Agency of his intention not to remain a beneficiary in terms of these regulations on such form as Malta Residence and Visa Agency may require.
- (4) The Ministers shall jointly have the power to condone any failure to satisfy any one of the conditions in sub-regulation (1) if:
- (a) such failure was due to unforeseen circumstances which are beyond the control of the individual;
- (b) such individual notifies the Ministers of such failure; and
- (c) such individual has exercised his best efforts to remedy the failure.

10. (1) For the purpose of ascertaining an individual's entitlement to rights acquired under these regulations and ensuring the proper application of these regulation, Malta Residence and Visa Agency may require that individual or the relevant registered approved agent and, or registered accredited person to produce, within the time indicated by Malta Residence and Visa Agency in that request, such information and documents as Malta Residence and Visa Agency may consider necessary, including certifications and declarations.
